5. Is the nominee willing to serve: Yes X Not Known _____

6. Brief resume of the nominee's background and qualifications:

Dr. Jalisca Thomason is a Professor of Forestry and Natural Resources in the Agriculture Department at Bakersfield College and serves as lead faculty for the college's regenerative farm and agrivoltaics work. She teaches Range Management, alternating with Wildlife Management, and brings expertise in forestry, natural resources, regenerative agriculture, grazing systems, and the integration of agricultural production with solar energy systems. Dr. Thomason also has direct working-rangeland experience: she and her husband operate a cow-calf grazing operation in central California. She holds certifications in Rangeland Management from the University of Nebraska and Oklahoma State University and is a member of Tulare County CattleWomen. Her combined academic, applied agricultural, and natural-resource experience would bring a strong practitioner and educator perspective to the Range Management Advisory Committee.
