| Summed Project Ranking Score  |    |  |

Notes:

1. Timber site classification will be determined by the consulting RPF upon submittal of the application package. Rating shall reflect a weighted average of all sites on the project area.
2. As per 14 CCR 895.1, “substantially damaged timberlands” means areas of timberland where wildfire, insects, disease, wind, flood, or other blight caused by an act of God occurs after January 1, 1976, and the damage reduced stocking below the requirements of PRC 4561 or other higher minimum stocking requirements that may be applicable under Articles 3 and 11 of Subchapter 4, Article 3 of Subchapter 5, and Articles 3 and 11 of Subchapter 6.
3. As per PRC 4793(q), a “small business entity” means a business enterprise, including a landowner, with five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) or less annual gross revenue.
4. As per PRC 4793(a), “a county with high unemployment” means a county with an annual unemployment rate, as reported by the Employment Development Department, higher than the mean annual unemployment rate of “rate adjustment counties” as defined pursuant to the Timber Yield Tax Law (Part 18.5 (commencing with Section 38101) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code). For ranking in 2025, counties with high unemployment are: Alpine, Colusa, Del Norte, Fresno, Glenn, Imperial, Kern, Kings, Lake, Lassen, Madera, Merced, Modoc, Monterey, Plumas, San Benito, San Joaquin, Siskiyou, Stanislaus, Sutter, Tehama, Tulare, and Yuba.
5. If the project is self-labor, no points awarded. Otherwise consider Statute 4799.01(c)(4), and CCRs: A project shall offer relatively more employment opportunities if the product of the number of man-hours per dollar of project cost and the proportion of the project devoted to wages and salaries is greater than the average of the same product for all projects being considered at the same time. Man-hours and reimbursements relative to RPF services shall be excluded from the calculation.
