

I SPY WITH MY LITTLE EYE

The coast redwood forests have hidden treasures everywhere, you just have to look. Play “I Spy” while camping, on a hike or driving through Jackson Demonstration State Forest and see what you can find.

I SPY SOMETHING...

(for younger explorers)

- Wet
- Green
- Round
- Fuzzy
- Yellow
- That smells good
- Rough
- Soft
- Red
- That moves
- Slimy
- Brown
- Smooth
- That smells bad
- Blue
- That makes noise
- White

I SPY ...

(for older explorers)

- A tree with needles
- A slug
- A colorful rock
- A fern
- Something with rings
- A tree with leaves
- A cone
- A bug with legs
- A spider's web
- A flower
- A baby tree
- An acorn
- A mushroom
- Something with wings
- Animal scat (poop)
- Berries
- A unique looking tree

Tag us in your photo on social media to share what you found on the Forest!

#stemlearning #stemforkids

