Incident Management of High Rise Fires (2016) Implementation of New Curriculum

This document is intended to provide information for all State Fire Training (SFT) stakeholders on the new Incident Management of High Rise Fires (2016) curriculum, a replacement of the Fire Command 2C: High-rise Fire Fighting Tactics (1995) curriculum. Stakeholders are encouraged to study this information carefully and seek clarification from SFT if questions arise. NOTE: Special attention should be paid to this new FSTEP course, as it is NOT included in either the Company Officer or Chief Fire Officer certification track.

Incident Management of High Rise Fires (2016) curriculum will replace the legacy CFSTES Fire Command 2C: High-rise Fire Fighting Tactics (1995) curriculum in Fire Service Training and Education Program. The new Course Plan has been developed based on current National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) Standards which includes NFPA 1021, Standard for Fire Officer Professional Qualifications (2014); NFPA 1407, Standard for Training Fire Service Rapid Intervention Crews (2015); NFPA 1521, Standard for Fire Department Safety Officer Professional Qualifications (2015); NFPA 1561 Standard on Emergency Services Incident Management System and Command Safety (2014). And the following FIRESCOPE ICS documents: FIRESCOPE ICS 420-1, Field Operations Guide; FIRESCOPE ICS 500, Structure Fire Operations (2015); and FIRESCOPE ICS 910 Fire Fighter Incident Safety and Accountability Guidelines (2013).

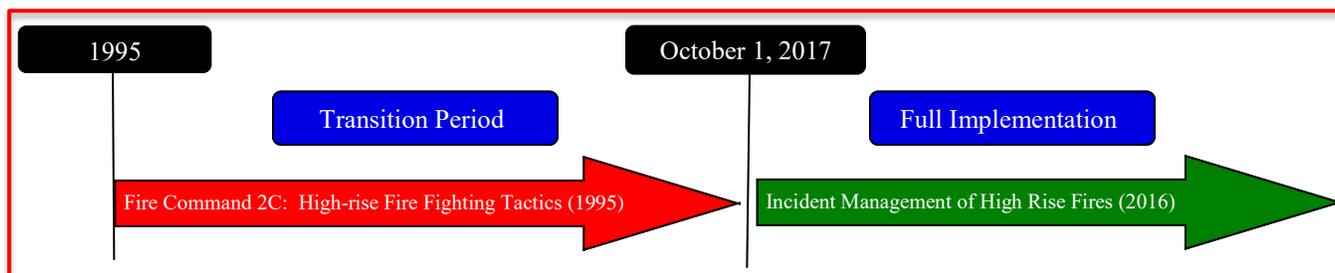

Additionally, the following FIRESCOPE ICS High Rise specialty documents were also referenced:

ICS-HR-120-1 High-Rise Structure Fire Operational System Description; ICS-1001 Lobby Control Unit Leader—High-Rise Incident; ICS-1002 Systems Control Unit Leader—High-Rise Incident; ICS-1003 Staging Area Manager—High-Rise Incident; ICS-HR-1004 Base Manager—High-Rise Incident; ICS-HR-1005 Rapid-Ascent Team Leader—High-Rise Incident; ICS-HR-1006 Rapid Intervention Group Supervisor—High-Rise Incident; ICS-HR-1007 Evacuation Group Supervisor—High-Rise Incident; ICS-HR-1008 Ground Support Unit Leader—High-Rise Incident. The Course Plan is available on the SFT website.

Worked as a volunteer suppression officer or paid call officer with a Recognized Fire Agency in California for a minimum of five years.
 - b. Specific expertise in command level strategy and tactics at high rise fires.

POTENTIAL AGENCY IMPACTS

Fire agencies utilizing the existing Fire Command 2C: High-rise Fire Fighting Tactics (1995) Curriculum as a requirement for their recruitment/promotion activities need to review the new Incident Management of the High Rise Fires (2016) Curriculum to ensure all agency training needs are being met. After review, fire agencies should update their job specifications and recruitment documentation to reflect this new course. Fire agencies should also evaluate how this new course may impact their existing labor agreements.

NOTE: Special attention should be paid to this new FSTEP course, as it is NOT included in either of the CFSTES Company Officer or Chief Fire Officer certification track. Agencies desiring their officers to receive additional training in strategy and tactics at high rise fires should strongly consider this course in their job specifications and recruitment documentation.

Accredited Regional Training Programs (ARTP), Accredited Local Academies (ALA), community colleges and all other local delivery venues need to review the curriculum and seek approval from their curriculum committee/program sponsor, as appropriate. ARTPs should review the new Incident Management of High Rise Fires (2016) curriculum and discuss potential impacts with their advisory committees.
